

RAILWAY TIME TABLES

CHICAGO & ALTON RY.

TIME TABLE

(In effect May 29 1910.)

EAST BOUND TRAINS

14	Daily Mo. State Express, Bloomington	10:50 am
22	Mid-Day Special St. Louis	11:45 a.m.
10	The Hammer (west.) Chicago	8:30 pm
24	The Early Bird, St. L. & Chgo.	1:37 pm
16	State Accommodation	7:50 pm
26	Night Hawk	1:55 am

WEST BOUND TRAINS

23	Daily The Early Bird, Kansas City	6:00 am
25	The Night Hawk	5:00 pm
9	The Hammer for Kansas City	8:30 pm
15	The Mo. State Express for Kansas City	4:50 pm
21	Mid-Day Special for Kansas City	3:07 pm
17	State Accommodation	6:50 am
11	Passenger	6:55 am

Stop on Signal

MISSOURI PACIFIC RY.

EAST BOUND TRAINS

Passenger Leaves Marshall	9:00 am
53 Passenger	11:15 am
56 Local Freight	10:50 am

WEST BOUND TRAINS

Passenger arrives at Marshall	8:50 am
51 Passenger	6:15 pm
55 Local Freight	1:50 pm

The 8:50 a. m. passenger train arrives in Marshall from the east from Sedalia and leaves 10 minutes later for the east

Dr. G. E. Scrutchfield

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist.
FITTING GLASSES

Office Farmers Savings Bank Bldg.
Rooms 237-238

Local Items

The Mo. Pacific passenger was delayed three hours near the Y Saturday night.

Mrs. Kate Kiel, Mrs. M. O. Nye and Mrs. Will Earp were here from Malta Bend shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hatfield of Nowata, Okla., are visiting Marshall friends this week.

Jos. Y. Proctor of Ravenwood, Mo. is the guest of his son C. G. Proctor and family this week.

Mr. W. H. Godman and wife and Mrs. L. M. French of Napton left Wednesday for the Springfield fair.

P. L. Grimes and W. H. Godman left Tuesday morning for Kansas City to attend the big stock show.

A. L. Liggett and Luther Gilliam of Slater, passed through Marshall Wednesday morning in an auto bound for Kansas City.

J. W. Nicely, wife and little son, of Oklahoma City came in Saturday to visit relatives a few days around Napton.

J. W. Nicely, wife and little son, left Napton for their home in Oklahoma City last Monday morning.

C. K. Scott left Monday morning for Malden, Mo., to over see the installing of a water system at that place.

Postmaster VanDyke and wife attended the Postal Association convention in Kansas City this week.

Mrs. John Schieszer of south of town left Thursday for Sheldon county to visit her mother Mrs. Ridderman.

Misses Flora and Dora Berg and Bennie Berg spent last week in St. Louis with relatives and took in the Veiled Prophet festivities.

Miss Sallie King is back at her duties at Wright's store after a pleasant vacation spent in Kansas City with friends.

Jay B. Campbell's sale advertised for Wednesday was withdrawn as Mr. Campbell changed his mind about leaving Saline.

Mrs. Sallie King, until recently a resident of West Arrow St. in this city, is reported seriously ill in the St. Joseph hospital.

M. O. Carroll and family of Ferguson were guests of Mrs. Elmira Carroll and Mrs. Kate Akers last week.

Money to loan at low rate of interest on farm property. Easy terms and long time loans.
41-44 Montgomery & Jones.

Roy Walter is the name of the new son born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pearse at their home in Kansas City on Oct 10, 1910.

Mrs. E. G. Guthrey, of Malta Bend passed through Marshall Tuesday on her return from the Illinois State Fair which she said was a big success and she enjoyed seeing the flying machines.

TAYLOR'S

Well now isn't this just the most delightful weather? Yes, if we had the making of it we couldn't do better. But remember it won't be this nice all winter and the maxim "In time of peace prepare for war" applies in the mercantile world. Don't wait until cold weather comes but prepare for it by coming at once to our big store and buy what you will need. We are ready for you with a great lot of good merchandise and bought for cash at low prices. We sell for cash and the customers get the benefit.

Ready-to-Wear.

Come now and select your Suit, Dress or Coat while stocks are complete. Don't wait until they are picked over for take our word for it, later in the season it is going to be hard to get Ready-to-Wear goods. The big strike in New York lasted for two months right in the height of the season and if we hadn't bought early we wouldn't have the bargains we have for you.

Millinery.

We are showing a beautiful assortment of Hats and our girls in this department have been more than busy. We will sell you a pretty stylish hat for less money than anybody in town.

Seasonable Goods.

And our shelves and tables are full of Dress Goods, Gingham, Percales, Domestics, Outings, Underwear and everything kept in a first class department.

Shoes.

We are ready for you on Shoes and Overshoes and you know "Star Brand Shoes are Better."

Groceries.

The economical housewife knows where to save money on things to eat.

1 doz. Lemons	$.19	18 lbs. Granulated Sugar	$1.00
1 lb. Full Cream Cheese	.23	18 boxes Greenwich Lye	1.00
3 pkgs. Macaroni	.25	7 bars Clairette Soap	.25
3 pkgs. Vermicelli	.25	7 bars Silk Soap	.25
6 cans Sardines	.25	2 cans Imported Sardines	.25
Gold Band Hams, per lb.	.22	1 gal. Coal Oil	.10
3 pkgs. Corn Flakes	.25	3 pkgs. Jello	.25
2 pkgs. Grape Nut	.25	2 pkgs. Knox Gelatine	.25

We are going to give you one more opportunity to buy a pink salmon at 10 cents per can. After this week it will be higher and we don't think there will be any more 10 cent Salmon this year.

Yours for business,

TAYLOR'S DEPT. STORE.

P. S. Just received a beautiful line of Silk Shirt Waists at popular prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Mart Doan accompanied by Miss Lillie Martin, of Higginsville enjoyed the stock show in Kansas City several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Dyke spent Tuesday in Kansas City, and several days later in the week with the latter's brother Holland Scott and wife at Napton.

E. B. Parks spent several days at the State Fair and was the guest of his brother, J. C. Parks, while there. He had nothing but praise for the fair.

Mrs. Mary Yates of northeast of Slater is visiting this week with her nephew and niece, Jefferson and Lizzie Nicely of northeast of Napton.

Mrs. L. M. French of Napton returned home after spending a few days with her sister Mrs. W. H. Godman and her mother Mrs. L. A. Grimes west of Marshall.

J. B. McKown, of Chicago, was the guest of his sisters, Mrs. J. L. Burnside and Mrs. J. S. Jenkins several days this week. He also visited his sisters at Malta Bend last week—Mrs. M. O. Nye and Mrs. Kate Kiel.

Percy Huston had the bad luck to have two bones of his left leg broken while out on a nutting expedition on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Anna Larman left for her home in St. Louis Saturday after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Clawson.

Carl Kubli, one of the young men injured last week on the Mo. Pac. near Wilton Springs, died at Mr. Jewell's rooming house Friday.

Henry Casey was up from Har deman Monday with Cleveland West of Cooper county who was on his way to Kansas City after a visit at Mr. Casey's.

LOST—A pair of gold rimmed glasses with hooks over ears, in a new Mauch case. Please leave at Mauch's jewelry store or at Republican office. Reward.

The address by Mrs. G. W. McClure, for twenty-five years a missionary in Bangkok, Siam, at the Odell Ave. Presbyterian church on Monday night was well attended and was an inspiration to all who heard it. A vocal solo by Mrs. Stephens was also a pleasing feature.

The Lyric Theatre has been sold to J. A. McChesney who is now running same. H. A. Stanford and wife, the former proprietor will return to their former home in Lawrence, Kansas.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Putnam and Mrs. J. J. Witt were royally entertained at a delicious six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cooper at Shackelford Wednesday evening.

Miss Minnie Murrell was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson at Buncheon last week. They brought her home in their auto and were guests of Marshall friend Monday.

Rev. J. P. McDonnell, col., of Gilliam, was called to the pastorate of the Second Baptist church here and will preach here every first and third Sunday. Like Rev. Mills, his predecessor, Mr. McDonnell is a splendid gentleman and a credit to his race and church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Brzuchalski are receiving congratulations of their friends upon the arrival of a 9-pound boy on Oct. 4 at their home west of town. Mrs. Brzuchalski will be remembered by her friends five years ago as Miss Black.

Miss Adele Nichols and others of his Marshall friends this week received the announcement of the marriage of Rev. E. O. Smith and Miss Verene Ottilie Stephan at Plainview, Minn. Rev. Smith was pastor of the First M. E. Church here several years ago.

Louis Roscher, of Woodward, Texas, who has been the guest of Sweet Springs relatives several months, was here Monday on his way out to W. T. Clark's to visit a few days. Mr. Roscher says he likes his new home very much and that they have a fine climate.

Hon. Jas A. Reed, attorney for the Metropolitan Street Railway of Kansas City and candidate for the U. S. Senate, addressed a large crowd at the opera house Monday night. Mr. Reed is a fine orator and always draws a good crowd. He scored things Republican generally and put wings on Democratic statesmen.

W. H. Riggins Saturday bought out his partner, W. L. Boner, in general merchandise store at Herndon and will continue the business while Mr. Boner has not decided yet what he will do. Mr. Riggins says he will increase his stock and be prepared to look after the business of his section. He has the only general merchandise stock in Herndon now.

One of the most amusing incidents in Reed's speech was his fierce denunciation of corruption and then to think the Democrats of Joplin have nominated Col. Wm. H. Phelps as their candidate for the legislature. A man who was a notorious lobbyist, a corporation attorney, formerly of the Mo. Pac. Railway Co. and in fact a handy man who furnished free passes.

The Coroners Inquest inquiring into the death of Pay Conway who died Saturday night, lasted two days—Monday and Tuesday, returning the verdict that his death was from an unknown cause. W. A. Armstrong who was being held during the investigation was released. The board of physicians who held the post mortem examination were Drs J. R. Hall, J. E. Harris, D. C. Gore, G. E. Scrutchfield and J. E. Connell.

Mrs. Pres. Pemberton was the fortunate holder of the winning number which drew the Buck heating stove at Taylor's Saturday. Miss Helen Terrell held the number in the first drawing that won the stove, but being under age and ineligible according to the rules of the drawing, another drawing was made. This time no one responded, so a third drawing was made, in which Mrs. Pemberton won.

The meeting held at the court house Tuesday night in the interest of state wide Prohibition was well attended and much enthusiasm was manifested. The speaker of the evening, Charles M. Hay of Fulton brought forth some very convincing arguments why every good citizen of our great state should be greatly concerned about the coming campaign against the liquor traffic. "The Prohibition Amendment Club" was organized with the following officers, Pres. J. E. Harris, vice-pres. A. B. Hoy, sec. A. R. James, tres., F. H. Naylor.

SUTHERLAND'S EAGLE EYE SALVE
Good for Nothing but the Eyes

WALK-OVER SHOES

"Seeing is Believing"

If you want to see the fruit of 36 years shoemaking experience, look in our windows. A trimmer looking, finer feeling and longer wearing shoe than the WALK-OVER can not be found. Seeing is believing but wearing is knowing.

"LIMIT"

2 INCH HEELS.
in Patent and Dull Leathers

Price $4.50

HOUX BROS., EAST SIDE

Postal Men in Session

Kansas City, Mo., October 10—At least a thousand delegates are in attendance at the big annual convention of the Southwest Postal Association, which convened here this morning.

The Coates House headquarters for the convention, was filled all day with postmasters. Senator William Warner was in attendance, shaking hands with old acquaintances and assuring every one that his health was much improved by his trip to England and return.

Frank Hitchcock, postmaster general and C. P. Grandfield, his first assistant, are expected to arrive tomorrow from St. Louis. Those who arrived from Washington today to attend the convention were: P. V. Degraw, fourth assistant postmaster general; Geo. G. Thompson, superintendent of supplies; Harwood M. Bacon, superintendent of classification; C. Howard Buckler, superintendent of registered mail; W. R. Spillman, superintendent city delivery; Irvin H. Tharp, superintendent of salaries and allowance; Frank H. Galbraith, superintendent of mails at Chicago.

T. J. Akins, postmaster at St. Louis with twenty-five clerks in charge of stations are here.

This organization is the only one of its kind in existence, and is composed of the postal employees of Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas. The convention will last three days. Among the features provided for the entertainment of the post office men are speeches by Senator Warner of Missouri, Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa and Congressman William P. Borland.

First insertion Oct. 14-4t

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that letters of administration on the estate of Henry F. Cook deceased, were granted to the undersigned, on the 24th day of September, 1910, by the Probate Court of Saline County, Missouri. All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to me for allowance, within one year after the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of such estate and if such claims are not exhibited within two years from the time of the publication of this notice they shall be forever barred.

WILLIAM T. CLARK, Admr.

Look at Your Date

Every subscriber will find the date on which his paper expires on the tag following the name. We are trying to get around to see every reader at least once a year, but necessarily miss some till their subscription becomes far overdue. In case the paper is not wanted please let us know at once or if your time is out and you want it help us in our work by handing us your renewal. We have 2400 names to watch and it's no small task, so please make it as easy as possible for us.

So It Was

A writer in London Opinion reports the following dialogue, that is an excellent contemporary appreciation of current styles: "What a beautiful countenance!" "Lo you like it?" "Oh, my dear, I love it. It's just too hideously fashionable for words!"

FREE

Free trial lessons in our home study course of the famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping. We compiled them and have taught them successfully for six years; we know just what they are and the results we can produce with them. To prove our confidence, we ask you to test them at our expense. We are familiar with every other system of bookkeeping and shorthand that is being taught by correspondence; we know where our advantages are over other systems; we know why we are enjoying such a tremendous enrollment in these courses, and we are anxious to show you why it is; we want to let our courses speak for themselves, then leave the decision with you.

Ambitious young people appreciate the opportunity of utilizing to good advantage their spare moments; there is no more profitable way nor pleasant way than in taking a home study course with us. Try our course at our expense. Fill out the following blank and mail to the Moberly Commercial College, Moberly, Mo.

Please send me a set of trial lessons in your home study course of (here state whether you want Bookkeeping or Shorthand) without cost to me. State age Occupation Name Address

Church News

Rev. B. T. Wharton is in Topeka, Kansas, attending the National convention of the Christian church. Mrs. Wharton has been there for a week or more.

Regular services at I. O. O. F. hall by Cumberland Presbyterians. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. preaching by pastor. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

The Home Mission Committee of Lafayette Presbytery met at the First Presbyterian church Monday. A number of Presbyterian pastors from a distance were present.

Dr. W. H. Black and Reva. Blaynie and Stephens went to Hannibal Tuesday to attend the Missouri Synod meeting.

MILTON ALISON

who is asking that you vote for him for County Clerk.